SUMMARY OF USE OF FORCE INCIDENT AND FINDINGS BY THE JACKSON POLICE DEPARTMENT

FORCE TYPE*

Soft-hand Techniques: Ground Stabilization

DATE

10/19/2020 0330 hours

REASON FOR CONTACT:

On October 19, 2020 at 0330 hours, officers were called by the reporting party to a local apartment complex for a male who was causing a disturbance. The reporting party stated the male had been banging on her window, was screaming and yelling and was pacing in the courtyard of the apartment complex. The male was arrested for public intoxication.

When the officer tried to put the suspect into handcuffs he tried pulling away from the officer. The officer attempted to use a door for a static surface to stabilize the suspect without success. The suspect was then taken to the ground so handcuffs could be safely applied by the officer

No injury to suspect.

No injury to officer.
