24 January 2023

Dear Paul,

Teton Gables, LLC is submitting these materials for a Planning Permit for PROW (Public Right of Way) tree removal for the old Twin Movie Theater located at 295 West Pearl Avenue. The Pearl was built in 1977 and here is the narrative for the removal of the trees:

There are three conifers on the west side of the building on Jackson Street that have been on the site for over 25 years. These trees are 3'-0" from the current building and 1'-6" off of the property line in the Public Right of Way. The trees need to be removed from the PROW because they are currently growing into the building. In order to do any work to the building, whether it is painting or siding replacement, the trees are prohibiting the owner from performing the work. With the current proposed design of the building, the siding will be removed and replaced, there is no way to complete this work without removing the trees.

The owner has proposed replacing (on a 1:1 basis) the existing trees with three new canopy trees to be located in the PROW. The trees-in-grate would be located on Jackson Street and would be similar to the ones located at 270 W Broadway Avenue along Jackson Street. The trees spacing as shown on the attached plan is to frame the north tenant's main entry and not block the view from the entry.

The owner would like to remove the existing trees and replace them with three trees-in-grate. Thank you for help on this matter and please call if you have any questions.

Sincerely,

(b) Personal Investment of Member

The Member warrants that he is purchasing the Units for the Member's own investment and not with a view to the distribution or resale to any other Person.

(c) Restrictions on Transferability

By virtue of this Agreement, the Company has disclosed to the Members and each Member acknowledges, that the transferability of the Units is severely limited and that the Member must continue to bear the economic risk of this investment for an indefinite period as these securities have not been registered under the Securities Acts, and therefore cannot be offered or sold unless they are subsequently registered under such Acts or an exemption from registration is available.

(d) Registration or Opinion of Counsel Prior to Transfer

Each Member agrees that in addition to other prohibitions on transfer under this Agreement, the Units will not be sold publicly without registration under the Securities Act, or until the Company has obtained an opinion of counsel satisfactory to the Company that such registration is not required, and in no event will any of the Units be sold within 12 months of their issuance, except as otherwise provided in this Agreement.

(h) No Right to Registration

The Member understands and agrees that the Member has no right to require the Company to register the Units under the Securities Acts at any time.

Article Two

Members and Units

Section 2.01 Limitation of Liability

Except as provided by law, the debts, obligations or other liabilities of the Company, are solely those of the Company and do not become those of a Member or the Manager solely by reason of their status as Member or Manager. No Member shall be required to loan any funds to the Company.

Section 2.02 Waiver of Partition

Each Member on behalf of itself, its successors and its assigns, hereby waives any rights to have any Company Property partitioned.

Section 2.03 No Participation in Management

(a) The Company shall be managed by a Manager who shall initially be Tyler Davis ("Manager"). The Manager shall have sole and exclusive management and operational control of the business of the Company subject to the limitations set forth in this agreement. Without limiting the foregoing, the Manager shall have sole and exclusive right, power and authority to (i) direct and control the Company's business policies, practices and decisions, (ii) execute and deliver contracts and other documents in the ordinary course of business, and (iii) take such other action on behalf of the Company as the Manager deems, in his business judgment, to be necessary or appropriate to the conduct of the business of the Company.

(b) No one other than the Manager shall be an agent of the company unless designated in writing by a Supermajority and no other Members shall have any right to control, direct or to participate in the management or operation of the business or affairs of the Company. Notwithstanding, the Manager may employ a Member as an individual to render services to the Company on such reasonable terms as the Manager may agree to.

Section 2.04 Member Dissociation

A Member may not dissociate from the Company without the written approval of a Supermajority. Dissociation without a Supermajority consent, is a violation of this Agreement and shall be treated as a wrongful dissociation and that Member shall be liable to the Company and the other Members pursuant to W.S. §17-29-601 for damages caused by the disassociation. The Member who wrongfully dissociates shall not have his Capital Contribution returned to him until dissolution of the Company or a decision by a Supermajority of the remaining Members to return such Capital Contribution, whichever occurs sooner. This liability is in addition to any other debt, obligation or other liability of the Member to the Company or the other Members.

Section 2.05 Admission of Additional Members

Additional Members may be admitted by the Manager upon written consent of a Supermajority on such terms as they shall approve (such admitted additional member shall be referred to as an "Additional Member"). However, if additional capital is to be raised or a dissociating member must be replaced, the then current Members shall be afforded a right of first refusal to increase their Capital Contributions as set forth below in Section 3.01. Any Additional Member shall be required to tender a Capital Contribution as required by the Manager pursuant to the written directive of a Supermajority. Such Additional Members shall be allocated gains, losses, income or expenses by such method as may be provided in this Agreement, and if no method is specified, then as may be permitted by relevant provisions of the Code. When Additional Members are admitted to the Company, the Manager shall adjust the Units of the Members to reflect the change in Company ownership and accompanying Percentage Interests.

Section 2.06 Return of Capital Contributions

Except upon dissolution, no Member shall be entitled to demand a return of his Capital Contribution or otherwise to be bought out of the Company unless otherwise expressly provided in this Agreement or unanimously agreed to by the Members.

Section 2.07 Expulsion of a Member

The Company, by a Supermajority Vote may expel a Member for a proven, uncontestable violation of this Agreement or for failing to make any Capital Contribution required by this Agreement. Upon expulsion, the Member shall lose all rights as a Member of the Company, but the duties to the Company of said expelled Member shall survive the expulsion and shall remain due and owing to the Company until fully satisfied. Further, upon expulsion, the expelled Member's Units shall be deemed transferred to the Company for its use and disposition as security for performance of the expelled Member's duties to the Company. Furthermore, the Company, by Supermajority Vote shall have sole authority to offer the Units of the expelled member to the other Members based on their pro-rata interest in the Company prior to said expulsion.

Section 2.08 Restrictions on Transferability of Units

Because capital is material to the business of the Company and its objectives, and the withdrawal of capital and unauthorized transfer of a Member's interest could create a substantial hardship to the Company and jeopardize its capital base, no Member, without the written consent of a Supermajority, may sell, assign, convey, encumber, transfer, pledge, hypothecate or in any way alienate all or any part of their Units in the Company, including without limitation, income rights. The Company is restricting the transfer of the Units in order to: a) maintain the Company's status for federal income tax purposes; b) preserve exemptions under federal and state securities laws; and c) provide for the orderly administration and operation of the Company. Where a Supermajority of the Members consent to the transfer, the transferee shall be a Permitted Transferee subject to subsection (b) below. Any attempt by a Member to transfer Units in the Company in violation of this Agreement is void against the Transferee.

(a) Effect of Prohibited Transfer

Any transfer of a Member's Units is void unless consented to by a written authorization signed by a Supermajority of the Members. A prohibited transfer of a Member's Units shall have the effect of transferring an Economic Interest only in that the Transferee shall not be allowed to participate in the management or conduct of the Company's activities, shall not have access to records or other information concerning the Company's activities, but shall, in the event of a dissolution and winding up of the Company be entitled to an account of its transactions, but only from the date of dissolution forward. Upon such transfer, all of the transferor Member's rights associated with the transferor Member's Units other than those rights that are specifically a part of the transferor Member's Economic Interest shall be deemed to be cancelled. An Economic Interest may be evidenced by a certificate issued by the Company and the interest represented by this certificate may be transferred by a transfer of the actual certificate. However, the Company must receive written notice of the transfer for it to be given effect.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, a Member may transfer their Economic Interest, but not their Membership Interest or Unit by complying with the provisions of W.S. § 17-29-502.

(b) Excepted Transfers to Permitted Transferees

Where a Member transfers his interest to a Permitted Transferee, meaning someone who has been approved in writing by a Supermajority, the Permitted Transferee, as a condition of receiving the Units must agree to be bound, and to bind their heirs, successors and assigns, by this Agreement and the Permitted Transferee must sign an acknowledgement stating as much. Any permitted transfer of all or a portion of a Member's Units in the Company which occurs during the first 15 days of any month will be deemed to have been made on the first day of the month and those transfers which occur after the 15th day of any month will be deemed to have been made on the first day of the next month.

(c) Additional Permitted transfers

Additionally, a Member who is an individual may transfer, during his lifetime, all or some of his Membership Interest to a revocable living trust, of which the Member is the sole Beneficiary or to a business entity wholly owned by the Member, on the condition that the trust or business entity is bound by all of the term of this Agreement to the same extent as a Member. It is specifically agreed to and accepted that C-Note Management, LLC will be and is permitted to transfer its interest to an entity solely controlled by it or its Members, Theodore and Noa Saryk. The only requirement necessary to effectuate this transfer is notice by C-Note Management, LLC to the Manager whereupon the Manager shall reflect this change in ownership on the Company books.

Section 2.09 Charging Order

(a) On application by a judgment creditor of a Member or transferee, a court may enter a charging order against the transferable interest of the judgment debtor for the unsatisfied amount of the judgment. A charging order requires the Company to pay over to the beneficiary of the charging order any distribution that would otherwise be paid to the judgment debtor in accordance with this Agreement.

(b) The Member whose interest is subject to a charging order under the preceding subsection may extinguish the charging order by satisfying the judgment and filing a certified copy of the satisfaction with the court that issued the charging order and providing a copy of the same to the Company.

(c) The Company or one or more Members whose transferable interests are not subject to the charging order may pay to the judgment creditor the full amount due under the judgment and thereby succeed to the rights of the judgment creditor, including the charging order.

(d) This section provides the exclusive remedy (in accordance with W.S. § 17-29-503) by which a person seeking to enforce a judgment against a judgment debtor may satisfy the judgment from the judgment debtor's Membership or from assets of the Company. Other remedies including foreclosure on the judgment debtor's interest and a court order for directions, accounts and inquiries that the judgment debtor might have made are not available to the judgment creditor attempting to satisfy a judgment out of the judgment debtor's interest in the Company and may not be ordered by the court.

Section 2.10 Death, Dissolution, Dissociation or Bankruptcy of a Member – Transfer of Units

The death, insanity, dissociation (as defined in W.S. § 17-29-602), bankruptcy or dissolution of a Member (a "Former Member"), or the occurrence of any other event which terminates the continued membership of a Member in the Company (a "Dissociation Event"), does not dissolve the Company and does not give rise to a right of the Former Member, or his successors and assigns, to receive a return of his Capital Contribution. If a Dissociation Event occurs, the remaining Member(s) may elect to purchase the Former Member's Interest by the method provided for in Section 3.01(a) below. If no Members elect to purchase the Former Member's Interest, the Company may elect to purchase the Former Member's Interest. If none of the foregoing occur, the Manager may seek to admit new Members to purchase the Former Member's interest upon written consent of a Supermajority. Other than dissolution of the Company, no Member shall have the right to withdraw or reduce or to demand the return of his Capital Contribution, except as set forth herein. Upon the death of a Member, the death of a Grantor of a Revocable Living Trust which is a member, or the death of an owner of a business entity which is a member, a bequest or transfer of any kind to any individual, including bequests to a spouse or lineal descendant, or a trustee for the benefit of such beneficiary, or a business entity, the individual trustee, or business entity to whom such bequest is made shall be deemed an Assignee, as defined herein, until, if ever, the Members agree that such individual, trust or entity shall have the status of a Member.

(a) Establishing the Purchase Price

The "Purchase Price" to be paid to a Former Member when the remaining Members purchase any Units under the previous sections of this Agreement shall be based upon the then current capital account of the Former Member as a function of the appraised value of the assets of the Company, taking into account all debt and cash on hand, with the Company choosing the appraiser. The Former Member shall receive its pro rata share of the Company valuation minus 10% which shall be escrowed to cover transaction fees. Transaction fees, at cost plus 10%, shall be withdrawn from the escrow account by the Company with the balance returned to the Former Member within 60 days of the purchase of the Units.

Section 2.11 Company's Unilateral Purchase Option

Notwithstanding any other provision of this Agreement, the Company will have the unilateral option to purchase ("Option") any interest acquired by any assignee as provided in this section.

(a) Circumstances Triggering Purchase Option

Any of the following circumstances will trigger the Company's Option. Collectively these events are referred to as "triggering events": 1) If the Membership Interest of a member passes or is transferred to an assignee; or 2) If any individual, entity, organization, or agency obtains a Member's interest, whether inclusive or exclusive of voting rights as a result of: any valid court order that the Company is required by law to recognize; or being subject to a lawful charging order by a court of competent jurisdiction; or a levy or other transfer of a Membership Interest, with voting rights, that the Company has not approved but that the Company is required by law to recognize.

If the Company exercises its Option, the Company will purchase the affected interest of the assignee for the fair market value of the interest, as determined herein.

(b) Terms and Conditions of Exercisable Purchase Option

If the Company exercises Option, the following terms and conditions will apply to the transaction.

(1) Written Notice of Intent to Purchase

The Company will provide written notice, to the assignee, after the triggering event that the Company intends to purchase the interest.

(2) Written Appraisal Requirement

Unless the Company and the assignee agree otherwise, the fair market value of any interest subject to the Company's Option will be determined by written appraisal performed by an appraiser selected by the Company within 20 calendar days of the exercise of the Option. The appraiser must be independent and qualified to perform business appraisals and to value limited liability company or partnership interests.

(3) Acceptance or Rejection of Valuation

If either party objects to the valuation, that party can pay for and commission another appraisal which shall be delivered to the parties within 20 days of any objection to valuation. If the appraisals are less than 15% apart, then the value shall be the average of the two appraisals. If the valuation is more than 15% apart, then the two first appraisers shall appoint and share the costs of a third appraiser and that appraiser shall choose the valuation which most closely reflects the valuation of the Company within 10 days of that individual's appointment.

(4) No Voting Rights During Purchase Option Period

Until the closing, the assignee will not be allowed to exercise any vote attributable to the interest that is subject to the purchase option. The assignee will be entitled to all items of income, deduction, gain, or loss from the interest. The assignee of the interest will be an Assignee unless all conditions have been satisfied for the assignee to become a Substitute Member.

(5) Location and Date of Closing

Closing of the assignee's interest under this section will occur at the principal office of the Company within 45 days of the date on which the valuation report is accepted by the parties, or the date on which the valuation of the interest is otherwise resolved.

(6) Payment of Terms Upon Exercise of Option

The purchase price shall be paid in cash, or in good and negotiable funds acceptable to the seller at closing.

Section 2.12 Purchase of a Member's Interest or Sale of the Company Assets

Any member can request that the Member's ownership interest in the Company be purchased by the remaining members pursuant to the following terms.

1. At the cost of the requesting member, an independent appraiser approved by the Manager shall provide an appraisal of the Company's assets within 20 days of the departing Member's notice of intent to purchase.
2. The request to purchase must be written and accompanied by the independent appraisal of the Company's assets.
3. The remaining members will have 2 months from receipt of the appraisal report to decide to purchase the departing Member's interest. If multiple Members wish to purchase said interests, they shall be entitled to do so in their pro rata interest.
4. If no other Member elects to purchase the departing Member's interest, the departing Member shall not be allowed to put forth another request to purchase for 6 months. The request to purchase shall not be deemed a right of any Member to withdraw from the Company. If no remaining Member elects to purchase the departing Member's interest, the departing Member shall remain a member.

Section 2.13 Member Meetings and Participation

The following provisions shall govern matters involving Member participation in the Company and meetings:

(a) Meetings of Members

Regular meetings of the Members are not required. Annual Meetings may be called by the Manager, special meetings may be called by the Manager or any Member.

(1) Notice of Meetings

The Manager shall deliver notice stating the date, time, and place of any Member meeting and, in the case of a special Members' meeting or when otherwise required by law, a description of the purposes for which the meeting is called, to each Member at least 10, but not more than 30, days before the date and time of the meeting. A Member may waive notice of any meeting by delivering a signed waiver to the Company and an email shall suffice for a waiver. A Member's attendance at any meeting, in person or by proxy (a) waives objection to lack of notice or defective notice of the meeting, unless the Member at the beginning of the meeting objects to holding the meeting or transacting business at the meeting, and (b) waives objection to consideration of a particular matter at the meeting that is not within the purposes described in the meeting notice, unless the Member objects to considering the matter when it is presented. The record date for determining the Members entitled to notice of a Members' meeting, for demanding a special meeting, for voting, or for taking any other action shall be the 30th day prior to the date of the meeting or other action.

(2) Quorum and Action

At any meeting of Members, the presence of a Supermajority of the Members constitutes a quorum. Action on a matter is approved if it receives approval by at least a Majority of the Members in the Company entitled to vote at such meeting unless a Supermajority is called for elsewhere in this agreement. Upon the occurrence of a Dissociation, a Former Member shall not be entitled to any vote. Also, any Person who is not also a Member shall not be entitled to attend (unless the Manager invites that person in their role as consultant, officer or counsel), vote or participate on any matters at any meeting unless such Person becomes a Member as contemplated herein or is permitted to attend by the consent of all members in attendance at that meeting.

(3) Proxies

A Member may appoint a proxy, in writing, to vote for the Member. A proxy is effective when received by the Manager of the Company. A proxy appointment is valid for 11 months unless otherwise expressly stated in the appointment form.

(4) Action by Written Consent

Any action required or permitted to be taken at a Members' meeting may be taken by written consent without a meeting if taken by all of the Members entitled to vote on the action. The action must be evidenced by written consents describing the action to be taken, signed by all the Members entitled to vote on the action, and delivered to the Company for inclusion in the minutes and an email will be sufficient. The record date for determining Members entitled to take action without a meeting is the first date a Member signs the consent to such action. Such written consent shall be effective on the date last signed, unless another date is specified therein.

(5) Meeting Participation

Any Member may participate in any Member meeting by telephone or video conference so long as all Members participating may simultaneously hear each other during the meeting. A Member so participating is deemed to be present in person at the meeting.

(6) Conduct of Meeting

At any meeting, the Manager shall act as the Presiding Officer and that person shall name a Secretary for that meeting who is responsible for preparing minutes of that meeting and including those minutes in the minute books of the Company.

Section 2.14 Right of Members, Manager and Disassociated Members to Information.

Members may, on reasonable notice, inspect and copy any record maintained by the Company to the extent the information is material to the Member's rights and duties under this Agreement. Disassociated Members are entitled only to information pertaining to when they were a Member to the extent the information is material to their rights when they were a Member.

Section 2.15 Issuance of Additional Units

- a. Issuance of Additional Membership Interests. With the written consent of Supermajority, the Manager may cause the Company to issue additional Membership Interests and Economic Interests in the manner directed by such Members.

- b. Part-Year Allocations with Respect to New Members. No additional (or substitute) Member will be entitled to any retroactive allocation of losses, income, or expense deductions incurred by the Company. In accordance with the provisions of Code § 706(d) and the Treasury Regulations promulgated thereunder, the Manager, at his option, at the time a Member is admitted, may close the Company books (as though the Company's tax year had ended) or make pro-rata allocations of losses, income, and expense deductions to a new Member for that portion of the Company's tax year in which a Member was admitted.

Section 2.16 Vesting.

Certain individuals identified on Exhibit B are shown as having Contingent Vesting Rights to Membership and corresponding Units. Upon the satisfaction of such Milestone shown in Exhibit B the identified individual shall give written notice to the Manager ("Milestone Notice") stating that the Milestone has been satisfied. The Manager shall have 30 days from receipt of the Milestone Notice to either approve or object (with a reasonable written basis for such objection). If the Manager approves, he shall provide written notice of such approval to the Members, the Membership Interests shall Vest upon such notice and the Company shall, reflect the same on the Company's books as indicated in Exhibit A. In the Event that the Manager objects to the Milestone Notice, the parties shall have an additional 30 days to resolve such conflict prior to submitting the dispute to mediation or arbitration in accordance with this Agreement.

Article Three

Capital Contributions

Section 3.01 Capital Contributions

Contemporaneously with the execution of this Agreement, each Member shall make the initial Capital Contributions as set forth on Exhibit A attached hereto. Exhibit A shall be updated annually or more often as the Units or Percentage Interests of the Members change. Any time an adjustment is made to a Member's Capital Account, the Percentage Interest and Units of that Member shall be adjusted by the Manager if the contributions are not made proportionately by all Members.

(a) No Additional Capital Requirements Required

No Member will be required to make an additional Capital Contribution unless required by a Supermajority, except that Joe Rice has a current obligation to contribute $400,000 within 90 calendar day of execution of this agreement. Failure by Joe Rice to make such capital contribution shall invoke the provisions of Section 3.01(b) below. In such event, additional capital shall be contributed on a pro rata basis by all Members. If directed by a Supermajority of the Members, the Manager shall make a capital call as set forth below.

(b) Additional Capital

If a Supermajority decides to raise additional capital, if a Dissociation Event occurs pursuant to Section 2.10 above, or a Member is required to make Capital Contributions as set for the elsewhere in this Agreement, the Manager shall make a capital call, or require of each Member that they participate in the additional contributions/purchase of a former Member's Units on a pro-rata basis as the case may be. The Manager shall send such notice to the Members and shall set a timetable and detailed procedure for acceptance of additional capital/purchase of Units. If a Member fails to make the Capital Contribution or elects to participate at less than his pro-rata portion, then within 20 days of a written default notice from the Company, then any Member and if more than one Member, then in their pro rata portions (Member X) may elect one, or all, of the following options: to 1) satisfy the deficiency by contributing additional capital in exchange for Member X being entitled to the Distributions of the Member who failed to satisfy the Capital Contribution requirement; 2) charge interest at a rate of WSJ prime plus 1% per year to the Member who failed to make the required Capital Contribution that remains unsatisfied after the expiration of the 20 day cure period; and 3) obtain a promissory note secured by the defaulting Member's interest in the Company. Each Member agrees to execute all documents necessary to effectuate the provisions of this section, including a collateral assignment of Membership Interest and a Promissory Note. In each of the foregoing options, Member X's making the additional Capital Contribution and transmission of written instruction to the Manager shall be the triggering event binding the Manager in accordance with this section. Further, the Manager shall be required to issue a collateral assignment of the defaulting Member's Membership Interest, in the case of a Capital Call, in favor of Member X, such that if the defaulting Member does not satisfy the original Capital Contribution, plus the required interest payment, the defaulting Member shall forfeit their Interest to Member X. The Defaulting Member shall have 1 year to cure its default before forfeiting its Membership Interest. Further, if more than one Member elects to satisfy the deficiency, the Member who contributes the most to satisfy that deficiency shall have sole deciding authority on how to proceed under this section. In each of the foregoing options, if a portion of the Capital Contribution is made, Member X, may, in his discretion instruct the Manager to apply these remedies to the entirety of the unsatisfied obligation, or in part. By way of example, if a Member makes half of the required Capital Contribution, Member X may instruct the Manager to distribute half of the profits allocated to such defaulting Member, or withhold all of the profits to such Member until the entirety of the Capital Contribution is made up through the application of distributed profits. Except as set forth in this Agreement, the Members shall not have any duty or obligation to any creditor of the Company, to make any contribution to the Company, or to issue any call for capital.

(c) No Withdrawal of Capital Contribution

No Member shall have the right to withdraw their Capital Contribution or to demand and receive Property of the Company or any distribution in return for their Capital Contribution, except as may be provided in this Agreement or required by the Act. Notwithstanding the foregoing, it is expressly agreed that C-Note Management, LLC shall be entitled to the return of $400,000 of its initial Capital Contribution once that amount is Contributed to the capital of the Company by Joe Rice as required by this Agreement. No Member shall receive out of Company Property any part of his Capital Contribution until: (i) all liabilities of the Company, except liabilities to Members on account of their Capital Contributions, have been paid or there remains Property of the Company sufficient to pay them; and (ii) the consent of the a Supermajority. However a Member is entitled to the return of their Capital Contribution upon the dissolution of the Company.

(d) No Interest on Capital Contributions

No interest will be paid on any of the Capital Contributions.

(e) No Obligation to Pay Another's Capital Contribution

Except as otherwise provided in this Agreement, if any Member has incurred any debt or obligation prior to the date hereof that relates to or otherwise affects the Company, neither the Company nor any other Member shall have any liability or responsibility for that debt or obligation unless it is assumed by the Company pursuant to a written instrument signed by the Manager. Furthermore, neither the Company nor any Member shall be responsible or liable for any debt or obligation that is hereafter incurred by any other Member or its Affiliates. In the event that a Member, or its Affiliates (collectively, the "liable Member"), whether prior to or after the date hereof, incurs (or has incurred) any debt or obligation for which neither the Company nor the other Members is to have any responsibility or liability, the liable Member shall indemnify and hold harmless the Company and the other Members from any liability or obligation they or any of them may incur in respect thereof.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, C-Note Management, LLC, or its permitted transferee, shall initially be the sole guarantor on the US Bank loan being used to fund the purchase of the Company's primary asset, the Teton Gables Motel property, Jackson, Wyoming. At a subsequent time determined by a majority vote of the Percentage Interest in the Company, the Company shall replace C-Note Management, LLC as the sole guarantor on said loan. Until such time, notwithstanding any other provision of this Agreement, the Members specifically agree that in the event C-Note Management, LLC's personal guaranty is called, C-Note Management, LLC shall have the ability to lien the Company's assets to the extent of the amount C-Note Management, LLC's guaranty is called, plus all reasonable fees and costs, including reasonable attorney's fees and if needed, the Company shall consent to such lien filing which may act as a mortgage on the Property. Further, in the event C-Note Management, LLC's guaranty is called, in whole, or in part, C-Note Management, LLC shall be entitled to all distributions of the Company until such time as C-Note Management, LLC is made whole for amounts paid pursuant to such guaranty, excepting those distributions made as necessary to cover the Members' tax liability. To the extent other Members personally guaranty the obligations of the Company, those Members shall have the right to lien the assets of the Company, however Joe Rice's lien shall be subordinate and secondary to C-Note Management, LLC's and Tyler Davis' lien shall be subordinate and secondary to Joe Rice's.

(f) Nature of Capital Contributions

The initial Capital Contributions shall be in cash or cash equivalent and subsequent contributions shall be in such amounts as shall be set out by a Supermajority. Loans by any Member to the Company will not be considered contributions to the capital of the Company. The Company, by Supermajority vote may accept loans from any Members or third parties on such terms as he may deem necessary or appropriate for the continued operation of the business of the Company, satisfaction of liabilities or obligations of the Company, or fulfillment of the purposes of the Company; provided that, other than nominal demand loans or advances from Members to cover routine and current expenses, the Manager shall offer each then existing Member the opportunity to participate in any such loan on a pro-rata basis according to his then existing interest in the Company prior to offering and accepting any loans to third parties.

(g) Capital Account

The Company shall establish and maintain an individual capital account of each Member in accordance Code and the Regulations promulgated thereunder. Each Member's Capital Account shall consist of the Capital Contributions made by that Member, plus allocations of income, less distributions and allocations of losses.

Section 3.02 Allocation of Profits, Losses and Deductions

Subject to the provision of § 704(c) of the Code and to the other provisions hereof, net income, gain, deduction, credit or loss for any fiscal year or other accounting period shall be allocated as follows:

1st any profits or gains for such period shall be allocated

- A) to the extent of any cumulative loss, to and among the Members in proportion to their Capital Contributions; and
- B) to the extent of any remaining profits, to and among all Members in proportion to their respective Profit Interest.

2nd any losses, credits or deductions for such period shall be allocated:

- A) to and among all Members in proportion to their Capital Contribution.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, no loss or item of expense shall be allocated to any Member to the extent such allocation would create or increase an Adjusted Capital Account Deficit with respect to such Member. Any loss or item of expense that is subject to the limitation of the preceding sentence shall be reallocated to and among all of the Members, to the extent of and in proportion to the amounts which may be allocated to such Members without creating or increasing the Adjusted Capital Account Deficit of any such Member.

Section 3.03 Allocation of Income and Loss and Distributions in Respect of Units Transferred.

- a) If any Unit in the Company is transferred, or if the number of Units is increased or decreased by reason of the admission of a new Member or otherwise, during any fiscal year of the Company, each item of income, gain, loss, deduction, or credit of the Company for such fiscal year shall be assigned pro-rata to each day in the particular period of such fiscal year to which such item is attributable (i.e., the day on or during which it is accrued or otherwise incurred). For the purpose of accounting convenience and simplicity, the Company shall treat a transfer of, or an increase or decrease in the amount of, a Unit in the Company which occurs during the first 15 days of any month will be deemed to have been made on the first day of the month and those transfers increase or decreases which occur after the 15th day of any month will be deemed to have been made on the first day of the next month.

- c) Distributions to Cover Tax Liability. The Company shall distribute to the Members from Net Cash Flow (and if the Company has insufficient Net Cash Flow the Manager will make reasonable efforts to cause the Company to obtain sufficient cash to do so) cash as the Manager estimates will be sufficient to enable each Member to meet its federal and state income tax liabilities (including estimated taxes) attributable to the taxable income of the Company. The Manager need not consider the particular circumstances of any Member and may make an assumption as to the "tax bracket" applicable to the Members as a group unless a Member has communicated such information to the Manager previously, in which case Manager shall take the same into consideration. Such tax distributions will be considered as advances against each recipient's actual entitlement to distributable cash for that year.

- d) Taxes Withheld. Amounts withheld pursuant to any tax law with respect to any Member's share of any item of income of the Company or with respect to any distribution to a Member will be treated as amounts distributed to the Equity Owner.

Section 3.04 Classes of Units

(a) Number of Units

The Company shall be allowed to issue up to 100 units, including fractional portions.

The Company shall bear the legal and accounting costs associated with any contested or uncontested proceeding by the Internal Revenue Service with respect to its tax returns.

(b) Discretion as to Tax Matters

The TMM shall take any and all steps reasonably necessary to classify the Company as a partnership for federal income tax purposes under the Code and Regulations, in particular IRC §§ 7701 et seq., and the "Check the Box" regulations effective January 1, 1997, as amended.

(d) Tax Elections

The TMM may cause the Company to make all elections applicable for federal and state income tax purposes as it, in its sole and absolute discretion, shall deem to be in the best interests of the Members. Dispute Resolution

Section 7.01 Waiver of Recourse to Courts

EACH SIGNATORY TO THIS AGREEMENT KNOWINGLY, VOLUNTARILY AND INTENTIONALLY WAIVES ANY RIGHT THEY MIGHT HAVE TO RECOURSE TO THE COURTS BASED UPON THIS AGREEMENT OR ARISING OUT OF, UNDER OR IN CONNECTION WITH THIS AGREEMENT OR ANY COURSE OF DEALING,

COURSE OF CONDUCT, STATEMENTS (VERBAL OR WRITTEN) OR ACTIONS OF ANY SIGNATORY HERETO EXCEPT AS SET FORTH HEREIN.

Notwithstanding the provisions of W.S. §§ 17-29-901 through 17-29-906, as a condition precedent to becoming a Member in the Company, each Member hereby agrees that all disputes between the Members or between the Members and the Manager concerning the Company or between a Member, Manager and the Company (collectively a "Dispute"), shall be resolved in accordance with the provisions of this Article (the "Procedure").

Section 7.02 Rights and Remedies Cumulative; ADR

The rights and remedies provided by this Agreement are cumulative and the use of any one right or remedy by any party shall not preclude or waive the right to use any other remedies. Said rights and remedies are given in addition to any other rights the parties may have by law, statute, ordinance or otherwise. All disputes shall be submitted to Mediation then to Arbitration as set forth below.

Section 7.03 Initiation of Procedure

The party seeking to initiate the Procedure (the "Initiating Person") shall give written notice to the other party(ies) (the "Responding Person") (collectively the "Parties"), describing in general terms the nature of the Dispute and setting forth a claim for relief. The Manager shall be deemed an Initiating Person or Responding Person if the Company is directly interested in the Dispute.

Section 7.04 Direct Negotiations

The Parties shall then meet within 30 days from the notice to mediate in order to discuss resolution of the Dispute. If the Dispute has not been resolved within 30 days from the date of their initial meeting between the Parties, they shall cease direct negotiations and shall submit the Dispute to mediation in accordance with the following procedures:

(a) Selection of Mediator

The Parties shall have 5 business days from the date they cease direct negotiations to submit to each other a list of acceptable attorney-mediators not affiliated with any of the Members. Within 5 days from the date of receipt of such list, the Parties shall rank the mediators in numerical order of preference and simultaneously exchange such rankings (1 preferable 2 less, etc.). If one or more names are on both lists, the highest ranking Person shall be the mediator. If no mediator has been selected under this procedure, the Parties agree jointly to request the Wyoming Supreme Court and the Wyoming State Bar Association to supply, within 10 business days, a list of potential qualified attorney-mediators. Within 5 business days of receipt of the list(s), the Authorized Individuals shall again rank the proposed mediators as set forth above and shall select as the mediator the individual receiving the lowest combined ranking. If such mediator is not available to serve, they shall proceed to contact the mediator who was next lowest in ranking until they are able to select a mediator.

(b) Time and Place of Mediation

In consultation with the mediator, the Parties shall promptly designate a mutually convenient time and place for the mediation no more than 45 days after selection of the mediator.

(c) Mediation Procedure

The Mediator shall be charged with setting out a detailed timeline and procedure for the mediation.

(d) Parties to be Represented

In the mediation, each Party may be represented by counsel. In addition, each Party may, with permission of the Mediator, bring such additional Persons as needed to respond to questions, contribute information, and participate in the negotiations.

(e) Conduct of Mediation

The mediator shall determine the format for the meetings, designed to assure that both the mediator and the Parties have an opportunity to hear an oral presentation of each Party's views on the Dispute. To this end, the mediator is authorized to conduct both joint and separate private caucuses with the Parties. The mediation session shall be private. The mediator will keep confidential all information learned in private caucus with any Party unless specifically authorized by such Party to make disclosure of the information to the other Party. The Parties agree to sign a document agreeing that the mediation shall be governed by the provisions of the Wyoming Uniform Arbitration Act, W.S. §§ 1-36-101 et seq., and such other rules as the mediator shall prescribe. The Parties commit to participate in the proceedings in good faith with the intention of resolving the Dispute if at all possible.

(f) Fees of Mediation; Disqualification

The fees and expenses of the mediator shall be shared equally by the Parties. The mediator shall be disqualified as a witness, consultant, expert or counsel for any Party with respect to the Dispute and any related matters.

(g) Confidentiality

Mediation is a compromise negotiation for purposes of Federal and State Rules of Evidence and constitutes privileged communication under Wyoming law. The entire mediation process is confidential, and no stenographic, visual or audio record shall be made. All conduct, statements, promises, offers, views and opinions, whether oral or written, made in the course of the mediation by any Party, their agents, employees, representatives or other invitees and by the mediator are confidential and shall, in addition and where appropriate, be deemed privileged. None of the foregoing shall be discoverable or admissible for any purpose, including impeachment, in any litigation or other proceeding involving the Parties, and shall not be disclosed to anyone not an agent, employee, expert, witness, or representative of any of the Members; provided, however, that evidence otherwise discoverable or admissible is not excluded from discovery or admission as a result of its use in the mediation. Notwithstanding the foregoing, if the parties successfully mediate the issue, the result of the mediation shall be reduced to a signed settlement agreement.

(h) Termination of Procedure

The Parties agree to participate in the mediation procedure to its conclusion. The mediation shall be terminated (1) by the execution of a settlement agreement by the Parties, (2) by a declaration of the mediator that the mediation is terminated, or (3) by a written declaration of a Disputing Person that the mediation process is terminated at the conclusion of at least one full day's mediation session. Even if the mediation is terminated without a resolution of the Dispute, the Parties agree not to terminate negotiations and not to commence any Additional Proceedings for 5 days following the termination of the mediation. Notwithstanding the foregoing, any Party may commence Arbitration within such 5 day period if the Dispute could be barred by an applicable statute of limitations.

Section 7.05 Additional Proceedings

If the Disputing Persons are not successful in resolving the dispute through the mediation, then the Disputing Persons, or any one of them, may pursue binding Arbitration as set forth below.

(a) Arbitration

The Arbitration shall be in accordance with the Rules of the American Arbitration Association currently in effect at the time of the arbitration and shall be limited as follows, arbitration shall last no more than 3 days, discovery shall be limited to 2 depositions per side and 10 interrogatories, 10 requests for production and 10 requests to admit. The demand for Arbitration shall be filed in writing with the other party. An Arbitration pursuant to this section may be joined with an arbitration involving common issues of law or fact between the Parties. Arbitration shall be conducted in Teton County where the Company's principal place of business is located.

The award rendered by the Arbitrator or Arbitrators shall be final, and judgment may be entered upon it in accordance with applicable law in any court having jurisdiction thereof. The prevailing party shall be entitled to recover from the other party the Arbitrator's fees and all reasonable attorney's fees, expert's fees, costs and expenses incurred in bringing the arbitration, including statutory interest.

Article Eight

Miscellaneous Provisions

Section 8.01 Limitation of Liability

Provided that he acted in good faith, and not directly contrary to any express prohibitions contained in this Operating Agreement, no Manager shall be liable to the Company or the Members for any mistakes in judgment or for any inadvertent failure to perform any of its obligations hereunder, or for any loss due to such mistake or failure to perform, or due to the negligence, dishonesty, fraud or bad faith of any other employee or agent of the Company except by reason of willful malfeasance, gross negligence or reckless disregard of one's duties. Indemnification shall be provided in accordance with this Section irrespective of the nature of the legal or equitable theory upon which a claim is made.

(a) Indemnification of Manager

To the greatest extent not inconsistent with the laws and public policies of Wyoming, the Company shall indemnify the Manager made a party to any proceeding because of that person's position as Manager, as a matter of right, against all liability incurred in connection with any proceeding; provided that it shall be determined in the specific case in accordance with Section 8.01(e) hereof, that indemnification of such Manager is permissible in the circumstances because the Manager has met the standard of conduct for indemnification set forth in Section 8.01(d) hereof. The Company shall pay for or reimburse the reasonable expenses incurred by a Manager in connection with any such proceeding in advance of final disposition if: (i) the Manager furnishes the Company a written affirmation of the Manager's good faith belief that it has met the standard of conduct for indemnification described in Section 8.01(d) below; (ii) the Manager furnishes the Company a written undertaking, executed Personally or on such Manager's behalf, to repay the advance if it is ultimately determined that such Manager did not meet such standard of conduct; and (iii) a determination is made in accordance with Section 8.01(d) below, that based upon facts then known to those making the determination, indemnification would not be precluded under this Section. The undertaking described above must be a general obligation of the Manager, but need not be secured and may be accepted without reference to financial ability to make repayment. The Company shall indemnify a Manager who is wholly successful, on the merits or otherwise, in the defense of any such proceeding, as a matter of right, against reasonable expenses incurred by the Manager in connection with the proceeding without the requirement of a determination as set forth in Section 8.01(e) below. Upon demand by a Manager for indemnification or advancement of expenses, the Company shall expeditiously determine whether the Manager is entitled in accordance with this Section. The indemnification and advancement of expenses shall be applicable to any proceeding arising from acts or omissions occurring before or after the adoption of this Section.

(b) Definitions

For purposes of this section:

- The term “expenses” includes all direct and indirect costs (including without limitation counsel fees, retainers, court costs, transcripts, fees of experts, witness fees, travel expenses, duplicating costs, printing and binding costs, telephone charges, postage, delivery service fees and all other disbursements or out-of-pocket expenses) actually incurred in connection with the investigation, defense, settlement or appeal of a proceeding or establishing or enforcing a right to indemnification under this Section, applicable law or otherwise.
- The term “liability” means the obligation to pay a judgment, settlement, penalty, fine, excise tax, or reasonable expenses incurred with respect to a proceeding.
- The term “party” includes a Person or entity who was, is or is threatened to be made a named defendant or respondent in a proceeding.
- The term “proceeding” means any threatened, pending or completed action, suit or proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative and whether formal or informal.

(c) Indemnification of Others

The Manager shall have the power, but not the obligation, to indemnify any Person who is or was Member, Officer, employee or agent, consultant or counsel of the Company to the same extent as if such Person was a Manager.

(d) Standard of Care

Indemnification of a Person is permissible under this Section only if such Person has complied with the duties stated in W.S. §§ 17-29-406 and 17-29-409.

(e) Determination of Indemnification

A determination as to whether indemnification or advancement of expenses is permissible shall be made by any one of the following procedures: (i) by an affirmative vote of a majority of the Members not at the time parties to the proceeding; or (ii) by special legal counsel selected by the affirmative vote of a Majority of the Members not at the time parties to the proceedings.

(f) Insurance

The Company may purchase and maintain insurance for its benefit, the benefit of any Person who is entitled to indemnification under this section, or both, against any liability asserted against or incurred by such Person in any capacity or arising out of such Persons service with the Company, whether or not the Company would have the power to indemnify such Person against such liability.

Section 8.02 Termination

The Company shall terminate and be dissolved if one of the following occurs: (a) a Supermajority vote to dissolve the Company; (b) entry of a decree of judicial dissolution by a court of competent jurisdiction; (c) the sale of all or substantially all of the assets of the Company; or (d) at such earlier time as may be provided by W.S. § 17-29-701. Distribution of assets shall occur pursuant to Section 4.02 above and the Manager shall have those powers and take those actions as enumerated in W.S. §§ 17-29-702 through 17-29-708 for purposes of consummating the dissolution of the Company.

Section 8.03 Amendments

This Agreement may be amended only in writing, and such amendment shall be binding upon all Members, upon a Supermajority vote.

Section 8.04 Effective Date

The effective date of this Agreement shall be the date that this Agreement is executed by all parties hereto.

Section 8.05 Complete Agreement

This Agreement and the Articles constitute the complete statement of agreement among the Members. This Agreement and the Articles replace and supersede all prior written and oral statements or agreements with respect to the Company and no representation, statement, or condition or warranty not contained in this Agreement or the Articles will be binding on the Members or have any force or effect whatsoever, except that any representations and warranties made in the Subscription Agreement by the Members shall survive.

Section 8.06 Binding Effect and Governing Law

The provisions of this Operating Agreement shall be construed according to the laws of the State of Wyoming. Each of the Members understands that in agreeing to the terms and provisions of this instrument, including provisions as to amendments hereto, he shall be bound, along with his estate, and any and all claiming by, through or under him.

Section 8.07 Headings and Interpretation

All headings herein are inserted only for convenience and ease of reference and are not to be considered in the construction or interpretation of any provision of this Agreement. Common nouns and pronouns will be deemed to refer to the masculine, feminine, neuter, singular and plural, as the identity of the person or persons, firm or corporation may in the context require. Any reference to the Code or other statutes or laws will include all amendments, modifications, or replacements of the specific sections and provisions concerned.

Section 8.08 Severability

If any provision of this Agreement is held to be illegal, invalid, or unenforceable, such provision will be fully severable; this Agreement will be construed and enforced as if such provision had never comprised a part of this Agreement; and the remaining provisions of this Agreement will remain in full force and effect and will not be affected thereby. Furthermore, in lieu of such provision, there will be added automatically as a part of this Agreement a provision as similar in terms to such illegal, invalid, or unenforceable provision as may be possible and be legal, valid, and enforceable.

Section 8.09 Multiple Counterparts

This Agreement may be executed in several counterparts, each of which will be deemed an original but all of which will constitute one and the same instrument.

Section 8.10 Additional Documents and Acts

Each Member shall execute and deliver such additional documents and instruments and to perform such additional acts as may be necessary or appropriate to effectuate, carry out and perform all of the terms, provisions, and conditions of this Agreement and the transactions contemplated by this Agreement.

Section 8.11 No Third Party Beneficiary

This Agreement is made solely and specifically among and for the benefit of the Members, Manager and the Company and their respective successors and assigns, including non-Members subject to the express provisions of this Agreement relating to successors and assigns; and no other Person will have any rights, interests, or claims under this Agreement or be entitled to any benefits under or on account of this Agreement as a third party beneficiary or otherwise.

Section 8.12 Delivery and Notice

All notices and other communications given or made under this Agreement shall be in writing and shall be deemed effective when given: (a) upon personal delivery to the person being notified; (b) when sent by confirmed electronic mail or facsimile if sent before 5:00 pm MST on a regular business day; if not, on the next business day; (c) four days after being sent by registered or certified mail return receipt requested, postage pre-paid; or (d) one day after deposit with a nationally recognized overnight courier, specifying next day delivery, with written verification of receipt. All Communications shall be sent to the respective parties at the addresses set forth on Exhibit A.

Any notice to be given or to be served upon the Company or any party hereto in connection with this Agreement must be in writing. It is the intent of the Members that the Company shall always be operated in a manner consistent with its treatment as a "partnership" under the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, and the Treasury Regulations as promulgated by the United States Department of the Treasury. No Member shall knowingly or intentionally take any action inconsistent with the express intent of the parties hereto.

Section 8.14 Waivers

The failure of any party to seek redress for violation of or to insist upon the strict performance of any covenant or condition of this Agreement shall not prevent a subsequent act, which would have originally constituted a violation, from having the effect of an original violation.
