REASON FOR CONTACT AND FORCE USED

Two officers observed a male walking in an erratic manner having a silent screaming conversation with himself. The officers were concerned for the male's welfare. When contacting the male, he swung a pickleball racket at them and then took off running. Officers pursued and determined he was having some sort of manic episode. Medics were called, and the 26-year-old Jackson male was taken to the hospital.

While attempting to subdue the male he was taken to the ground for handcuffing and stabilization.

Injury to male: NONE
